You will have 2 hrs to look around and then have lunch in a typical restaurant in the old city or on request stop for lunch in Monteriggioni Castle, another beautiful walled hamlet and a quick look around. Later drive to San Gimignano (45 mins), a stunning medieval village perched high up on a hill. With only 14 of it’s original 74 towers left, the village has been beautifully restored and you can spend 1hr 30 mins exploring the narrow streets and characteristic squares and there are some lovely shops selling tasteful souvenirs and enjoy some of the best ice cream, a definite must during your stay in Italy. With time permitting we can stop at a winery along the Chianti Classico route and do some wine tasting of some of the famous labels. Return to Florence.
